International Students

International students are the central point of focus of CUI's internationalization policy and it welcomes international students from across the world. Some facts of International students are;

Prem Thapamagar Nepalese Alumnus

The University staff has helped me to learn more about the university and my course, and all the other students on my course are very nice. The COMSATS University is very nice, the tutors are very good, it is a very beautiful campus and it's worth coming here!
Pakistan has been very hospitable to me; the people here are very welcoming and I've also discovered a large community of other students from my country here.

Tamana Ashori, Afghan Student

One very interesting and important aspect of my stay at CUI is sound disposition of all the faculty members i have interacted with, always willing to listen and help out in whatever way they can, both academically and on personal basis.

I must say that my stay at CUI and in Pakistan has been relay worthwhile"
